

Source: Brazilian Government Website on the 2014 World Cup

July 2nd 2014

GAME ON!

Sports Diplomacy in Brazil

Lecturer: Mr. Rodrigo Maffei Libonati

First Secretary

Brazilian Embassy in Tokyo

On June 12th, Brazil opened the 20th FIFA World Cup, and in two years, will host the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio de Janeiro. In step with the timing of the World Cup, we are pleased to welcome Mr. Rodrigo Maffei Libonati, First Secretary at the Brazilian Embassy, who will give a talk on sports diplomacy in Brazil. After the seminar, there will be time for a Q&A session, so please bring your lunch and don't miss this exciting and timely opportunity!

GO
Lunchtime Lecture

Lecture and Q&A

12:10 ~ 12:55

kkkjhhjhjhjhjhjh

21KOMCEE B1

MM HALL

Language English

What is the GO Lunchtime Lecture Series?

The GO invites guest speakers from foreign embassies in Japan or governmental agencies. These representatives give talks on various countries and themes, and students are encouraged to ask questions in an interactive-style lecture.

Organized by the Globalization Office

Komaba Campus, the University of Tokyo