【Notes】

- General information on study abroad and travel safety is available on the Go Global website. Make sure to purchase an international travel insurance that covers the entire duration of the program.
- For paper-based application documents, make sure that all the details are printed correctly and readable before submitting your application.
- No cancellation can be accepted once the registration form is received by Sciences Po, unless a serious medical reason invoked. Be sure to read all the program details before applying. (The International Exchange Group of the International Affairs Division will send all registration forms to Sciences Po by December 10, 2013. Therefore, cancellation after December 10, 2013 cannot be accepted.)
- Before applying, consult with the relevant section of the department in which you will be affiliated with during the program term in order to be fully aware of any possible academic affairs you need to know. (Applications without signatures by academic advisors are not accepted.)
