

Special Lecture for First-year Students of the University of Tokyo
By John V. Roos, the United States Ambassador to Japan

Title: The United States and Japan in the Global Era

Time and Date: Monday, June 10, 2013

15:00-16:00

Venue: Main Auditorium,

Graduate School of Mathematical Sciences Building

Capacity: 200 students

*Pre-registration required

Language: English (with simultaneous interpretation)

Target Audience: Mainly First-year students of the University of Tokyo

(Second-year students are also accepted.)

Registration Period: From Friday, April 26 to Friday, May 17

Important Notes:

1. Those who wish to attend the lecture need to pre-register at PEAK/GPEAK Section (Counter No. 2) in person during the above mentioned registration period. In case more than 200 students apply, a lottery will be held to select participants. The result will be posted on UTask-Web and on the PEAK/GPEAK bulletin board at the right-hand side of the PEAK/GPEAK Section on Thursday, May 23. If selected, cancellation of the seat may not be accepted.
2. Audience is allowed to bring writing utensils, valuables, and mobile phones only to the auditorium. (Please do not bring your bag or other personal belongings to the venue.)
3. Please bring your student ID card to the lecture. (Without your student ID, you are not allowed to enter the auditorium.)
4. Inquiry: Komaba IO Support Center (Tel: 03-5454-4586)