

GO Seminar

Urban Culture and Private Railways in Tokyo

Period: Thu 3

Classroom: 8-317, Bldg 8, Komaba Campus I

Fieldwork: Eifukucho, Den-en-chofu, and Shibuya

GO Seminar is open to all students of the University of Tokyo. Participants will learn about various aspects of Japan and discuss them with Japanese and international students in English.

GO Seminar "Urban Culture and Private Railways in Tokyo" will give students an opportunity to learn and consider the socio-historical contexts of urbanization and town culture in Tokyo. The seminar is divided into 3 units, and each unit consists of 3-4 sessions, including a fieldwork session. Please attend the first session of the unit you wish to participate in (Apr 17, May 22, or Jun 12).

Unit 1 (Apr 17, 24, and May 8, 15)

Modernization and the Private Railway (Fieldwork: Eifukucho)

Unit 2 (May 22, 29 and Jun 5)

City Planning and the Private Railway (Fieldwork: Den-en-chofu)

Unit 3 (Jun 12, 26, and Jul 3, 10)

Urban Culture and the Terminal Station (Fieldwork: Shibuya)

*Students who are allowed to register for the College of Arts and Sciences Senior Division Courses can participate in all 13 sessions, including the introductory session and the final wrap-up session for 2 course credits. Please attend the introductory session on Apr 10.

Instructors: Shiho Maeshima, Mariko Osawa, and Miki Toyofuku

Globalization Office (21KOMCEE B1, Komaba Campus I)
Opening Hours: Mon-Fri 10:00-17:00 Website: <http://go.c.u-tokyo.ac.jp>

 Globalization
Office