

It is with deepest regret that we must announce the international workshop on "Climate Change and Sustainable Development; Public Health and Policy", which was scheduled on Oct 11th 14:-00-17:00, has been cancelled due to impending typhoon as well as the safety of attendees.

We regret any inconvenience this may cause you.

We appreciate your understanding.

Autumn Study Abroad Fair will be held next week.

Although the session is given in Japanese, brief English handouts are available and you can come and ask questions in English also.
