Continuation of restrictions on activities under Stage Orange

Since Monday, June 15, the Graduate School and College of Arts and Sciences have been observing restrictions on activities under Stage Orange. Dr. Fukuda, executive director and chair of the UTokyo coronavirus task force, has announced that, as of Monday, June 29, the university-wide status will remain at level 1. In light of this, the Graduate School and College of Arts and Sciences will remain in Stage Orange.

We ask that you continue to follow the Graduate School and College of Arts and Sciences' current policies regarding the novel coronavirus.
