◆Suspicious Invitation ◆

There have been a number of reported incidents of invitation by a suspicious organization hiding their identity, taking place around lunch time on Wednesday, June 12 around Komaba Communication Plaza, Ginkgo Avenue, and in Building No. 1.

Please take note of the following precautions and stay alert:

- (1) Do not easily take part in gatherings/activities off-campus.
- (2) When approaching students, cult groups may be hiding their true purposes (e.g. religious activities), so check the name of the organization and the position of the person inviting you.
- (3) Do not provide personal information such as your mobile phone number or email address.

Should you ever notice anything suspicious at all, please report to the university.
