

Attention: Distribution of leaflets and petitioning activities by external organisations

6 March 2014

To students at the College of Arts and Sciences

Student Support Division
College of Arts and Sciences

On Tuesday 4 March 2014, a non-university related organisation was distributing leaflets and collecting signatures outside the Komaba Communication Plaza. Previous to this, this organisation has been making a number of unauthorised entries into the campus and engaging in similar activities, and on each occasion, has been ordered to leave.

Such incidents are likely to continue in the future, so please be alert, and refrain from disclosing any personal information such as your email address. Furthermore, if you see any non-university organisation handing out leaflets or collecting signatures on campus, please inform the university at once. The contact details are as follows.
