The Research Gap, Originality, and your Own Voice in Research

Registration

This workshop aims to guide you in the process of identifying the research gap for your thesis. A cornerstone of any research is identifying the value that your research and voice can add.

How does one go about identifying a gap amidst current research? How does one demonstrate originality in research?

Venue : Building 10, 2nd Floor, Room 203

Target Audience : Students who are writing their thesis
(all stages appropriate)

Language of the Workshop : Mainly English (Japanese welcome)

Coordinator : Associate Professor Diana Kartika

Registration: Registration required. Walk-in allowed.

17 July (Fri)
