A Semester (A1・A2 Term) of the Faculty of Integrated Cultural Studies Teaching Format Contact Information

S Semester (S1・S2 Term) is fully online teaching, but A Semester (A1・A2 Term) is currently partially face-to-face teaching. We plan to introduce face-to-face teaching. For face-to-face teaching, please refer to the separate teaching list.

However, even for these subjects, if the infection risk is high, or if it is difficult to obtain necessary information, the teaching format may change to online teaching. Conversely, for online teaching, if the infection situation improves, it may be possible to switch to face-to-face teaching with the consent of the instructor.

In addition, when introducing face-to-face teaching, we will implement infection prevention measures on campus, such as ensuring classrooms where online teaching can be completed, and strengthening/maintaining UTokyoWiFi.

Also, please take the following infection prevention measures on your own.

- Mask wearing
- Presentations etc. with face-to-face teaching, or such teaching in empty classrooms
- Thorough disinfection, hand washing
- Self-discipline at gatherings such as meals and family gatherings
- Registering on the "Keio University I Campus Entry/Facility Use Application Site" before entry.
