

Special Field Trip

ISE, KUMANO, KOYASAN

The Globalization Office (GO) offers international students and other Todai students a special field trip to the Kii Peninsula in July. The Kii Peninsula has many historical and cultural attractions. The Ise Shrine in Mie Prefecture is one of the most famous and important shrines in Japan, Kumano and Koyasan in Wakayama Prefecture were registered as World Heritage sites in 2004. Let's go on this field trip and discover the roots of Japanese culture and society!

Date: Friday, Midnight 12th July – Tuesday, Morning 16th July.

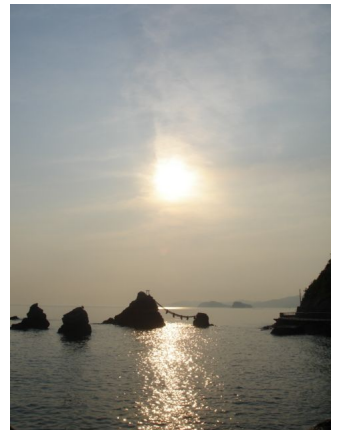

Destinations: Ise (Mie Prefecture), Kumano (Nachi Shrine, Hayatama Shrine, and Hongu Shrine) and Koyasan (Wakayama Prefecture)

Transportation: Chartered Bus

Travel expenses: 20,000 yen (includes 2 nights at inns, museum admission fees, travel insurance, etc.)

Conditions:

- This field trip is open for the students enrolled in Todai (of course exchange students or other international students are eligible to apply).
- Participants will be required to prepare for the destinations in advance.
- After this trip participants must submit results (essays, etc.).
